Jazz Violin/Vocals meet Afro Cuban, Stevie Wonder in NYC - original songs and arrangements featuring Danny Grissett, Vicente Archer, Quincy Davis... 7 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, LATIN: Latin Jazz
Details: The young Austrian violinist/singer/songwriter, a graduate of the New School Jazz program in NYC, has established herself on the NYC scene, both as a bandleader and sidewoman, working with such diverse artists like Joanne Brackeen, Billy Hart, Butch Morris, Abbey Lincoln, James Hurt, David Gilmore, Cheik-Tidiane Seck, DJ Spooky to name a few. Her original compositions are influenced not only by her Jazz influences, but also by her diverse musical experiences playing in Afro-Cuban, African, Urban Soul and Brazilian bands. Her writing is complex, yet very lyrical and facile, historically aware, new and dynamic. "Cherchez la Verit" features some of the hottest young Jazz musicians in NYC: Danny Grissett, piano (dannygrissett.com) Vicente Archer, bass (vicentearcher.com) Quincy Davis, drums Scott Kettner, percussion (scottkettner.com) Jerome James, percussion (jeromejames.net) Analissa Martinez, cello "...a great Jazz artist..." Don Alias "...a fresh sound coming from the violin... an impressive CD..." Reggie Workman "...a fine talent who is expected to touch the world with a profoundly deep soul which she uniquely possesses." Cecil McBee "...a gifted composer..." Kenny Werner "... a serious commitment to musical excellence...from improvisatory performance skills to fluency as a jazz composer...an extraordinarily gifted and committed musician..." Jane Ira Bloom
