This is the soundtrack to the MP3 audiobook, "SHELL: Black Pearl Of the Ghetto". 13 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: ...over the years, rappers have dazzled listeners by the millions. But without the BLING-BLING! and CHROME THANGZ SPINNIN', what are they really saying?... Now comes the author/artist, Stan Money... He's more than just a man on the mic. Although his songs and books are written for those that reside in the realm of "street life", he's a lyrical activist; often compared to a rapping Donald Goins. However, I'm merely His publicist. I'm supposed to say things to arrest your attention. ...but don't take my word for it, check out stanmoney.com, listen to his music and stories and judge for yourself. ... as for Ras'T DUBFLEX! The song entitled, "We Gone Smoke", speaks for it's self. Ras'T's ability to produce diverse tracks only compliments Stan Money's diversified flow. No two songs sound alike. But once again, don't take the Publicist's word for it, {although I would never piss on your back and tell you that it's raining} just check out stanmoney.com, listen to the music and stories, then judge for yourself. Please feel free to write a review. Alishichia Flowers
