Hot fingerpicking, foot-stomping, acoustic rockabilly that's heavy with keys that'll get your heart pumpin' and then cool you down. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Americana, BLUES: Blues-Rock Show all album songs: Live Songs Details: Bo Weevil Rottin Cottin This high energy band has been shakin the walls of juke joints in Maryland and Virginia for over three years. Because of the unique blend of rootsy blues, country, and early Memphis rock n roll, theyve decided to call their music DownHomeabilly. Theres no way to keep still when watching em live listening to this live CD. Recorded over two different nights at their local watering hole Venutis in Frederick, Maryland, LIVE captures the energy, jam, and DownHomeabilliness of their sound. Bo Weevil grew up in a musically family, spent 11 years gigging in Atlanta, and moved up to Maryland several years ago. Hes into his 18th year of gigging throughout the South and now the East Coast. He plays the acoustic guitar, is an avid fan of Travis Pickin, sings, composes, and plays harmonica. Brent Burgee hails from Frederick, Maryland. A natural to this style, he excels at both piano and Hammond. If you have any appreciation for incredible keys, youll love Brents contribution to the Rottin Cottin sound. Rick Jordan is the hardest working Doghouse Bass musician in the East. His driving rhythms and tasteful lines form the foundation of the Rottin Cottin sound. It doesnt take you but 30 seconds of watching him live before you start shacking your head and sayin How the hell does he do that??? Jon Danforth is the newest member of Rottin Cottin. An accomplished musician, he had played with Rick Jordan years ago in DC favorite band The Grandsons. After a long separation, hes glad to be back with Rick completing one heck of a kickin rhythm section. Well butter my butt and call me a biscuit!!! These performances were captured by a portable hard disk recorder. They were then tranferred to computer where they were edited, mixed, and mastered by Bo Weevil in his studio.
