Show all album songs: Red Bank Road Songs Details: A world abuzz with melodies of wheels spinning, birds chirping, people laughing, crying, singing. There is freedom in the air. A young millennium begs for new songs. Songs of loving, losing, leaving that are shaped by historic memory, yet shape tomorrow. In this rhythmic American landscape of cities and streets, farms and creeks, we all listen for the hymns, anthems, and ballads to remind us of who we are and where we are going. Caleb Caudle and the Bayonets emerge into this particular place with songs drinking deeply from the wells of timeless American lyrical themes and musical stylings. But there is a free and fresh quality of their songs which transcends classification. While rock, country, folk, and soul music all inform their sound, they cant define it. What can be heard are urgent, well-instrumented songs with soul-searching lyrics that demand the listener to keep on listening.
