Now the band has released their first album upon an unsuspecting world. "Portland Death Punk Vol. #1" contains everything that the Bees are about: loud, fast songs about heartbreak and monsters. Their music builds upon the scene started by bands like the Misfits and Black Flag, but is played with a ferocity of newer acts like Turbonegro and the Hives. If you want to see a band that will make you laugh until you pee a little but also scare the make right out of you, then put on your dirtiest, dancing shoes and follow the cacophonous, death-punk sound.
