David Casey of Watercarvers Guild has written 13 hilarious, new songs for the whole family. A polka about golf, a reggae song on the ukulele to learn your ZYX's, an African drum circle greeting game, a mystery about relocated socks, and more. 13 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, FOLK: Children's Folk Show all album songs: Best Day Ever Songs Details: Some people around Helena, Montana, remember when David Casey, of the band Watercarvers Guild, worked as the ballpark organist for the Helena Brewers baseball team. Ever since the time David was almost fired from that job in High School for playing Three Blind Mice after an umpires bad call, he says he has appreciated the influence of music. I think I learned my lesson, says David. Now David Casey has written 13 hilarious new songs for his first childrens CD Best Day Ever. Ranging from ukulele-fused reggae to a ranting accordion-polka to a new African drum-circle greeting-game, this album introduces children to a wide array of different musical instruments and styles. David sings rollicking songs, tells offbeat stories, and closes the album with three beautiful lullabies. "These are mostly songs I wrote to entertain my own children. These are songs to sing and play in car trips, or around fire, or to drive your family crazy until bedtime and then there are lullabies to sing each other to sleep." David has written and recorded with Colin Meloy of the Decemberists, in Happy Cactus and recorded with Tarkio.
