Acoustic Pop with a social conscience delivered with passion and conviction. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, FOLK: Political Details: In a sea of negative, depressed and anti-social music, there stands an artist who reminds us that all hope is not lost. Greg Lamboy combines words of truth with impassioned music that inspires you to care, to question, to learn, to strive, and to love. A talented singer and multi-instrumentalist who's not afraid to be passionate and sensitive but retains the strength and courage to stand up for what he believes in. Weaving unforgettable melodies with award winning song writing and raw emotion, he creates accessible music that wins the hearts, minds, and ears of all who listen. With diverse artists such as the Dixie Chicks and Spearhead creating music with social themes, Greg Lamboy is part of a growing group of recording artists who put their music where their heart is. But he also walks the talk. Willing to roll up his sleeves and get a little dirty for a worthy cause, Greg has raised funds and awareness for numerous homeless outreach groups as well as donated countless hours to campaigning on behalf of John Kerry for President. His music seeps with the joy he so obviously finds in pursuing all of these tasks. Whether solo, with his acoustic trio or with his full band, all of Greg's performances are intimate and inspiring. He possesses that rare ability to put into words our most heartfelt emotions and delivers them in a strong clear voice and commanding guitar style. Audience members feel as though they are sharing a moment with a close friend. Singing since he could speak, the Oakland, California resident and multi-instrumentalist holds a degree in music from New York University and honed his vocal skills with the renowned Judy Davis. Greg's full length CD, Every Drop of the Good is independent AAA acoustic rock at its most ideal, offering a treasure of catchy, inspired acoustic pop marked by Lamboy's powerful tenor and accomplished guitar technique. His eagerly anticipated follow up CD is scheduled to be released later in 2004. "That same intensity that he brings to his songs of social conscience make his love songs glow and infuse the spirit with warmth" - Jennifer Layton, Indie-Music.com "Acoustic-pop troubadour Lamboy offers consistently melodic songs that are heartfelt observations on everyday life." - Music Connection "That's some fancy guitar work" - Simone Solonde, Acoustic Guitar Magazine "Meaningful lyrics, wonderful chord choices...Oh my! Goosebumps!" - Michelle Jacques, Streetsounds "Well crafted and meaningful songs" - Russ Jennings, KPFA "Assured presence and performance" - Beth Holland, KFOG and KQED
