Jeff's music might best be described as an inspired update of 60's groups like The Kinks and The Lovin' Spoonful with a little Beck, Cake, Waits and Dylan mixed in. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, ROCK: Classic Rock Details: One of the best produced, best written CDs I have ever heard. Great singing on every song. One of the best album covers I have ever seen. Imaginative arrangements... Genius producing and arranging... Consistently superb... - Martin Olson (TV Producer, Comedy Writer - Rocko's Modern Life, Robin Williams, Ellen DeGeneres) Good entertainment... well-written lyrically... melodically too. I liked the reprise of Angst Cretin much better than the opening band - best cut on the whole CD. It's very Hollywood, but sort of Ed Wood-ish, with great touches of sound efx and fun-house mirror-type sounds. Pure fun! - Wayne Wadhams - (Record Producer, Songwriter, Artist - Fifth Estate, D-Men, Studio Musician - Lovin' Spoonful) "Angst Cretin" Jeff Root's latest CD takes you on a magic carpet ride of lyrical playfulness and straight-ahead rock sensibility that is both electric and eclectic, but also uncompromisingly original...all without losing Jeff's uncanny sense of fun. Go...buy it! - John Schindler (Singer-Songwriter, Winner of 2003 Boston Folk Festival Songwriting Contest)
