Details: JUS BOOGIE is a poet, lyricist, rapper, Conscious emcee, a Christian a native of Harlem, New York. He explodes onto the music scene with hot beats, a blazing lyrical flow, and an inspirational and spiritual message. His style and lyrics are riveting with intensity, passion, heart, soul, and conviction. JUS BOOGIE'S stated mission is to "To win the lost and strengthen the believer..." and he does it with a style and energy worthy of comparisons to secular peers like Jay-Z, Rakim and Tupac Shakur. It features crazy hot production by PL Sweets (a.k.a. Swee-z) of MFMusicGroup (Def Jam artist Foxy Brown, Legendary Ragae Artist InI Kamoze the "Hott Steppa", new artist Universal Records James Lee, Rufus Blaq writer for Angie Stone, Destinys Child, B2K, Omarion)Former manager Blue Williams the manager of Outkast says: He has the hot tracks often compared to Dr. Dre/ Timberland/ Neptunes he's that versatile "crazy" you can't believe this one guy doing all this. He has that Soulful Harlem Grit just good music with lots of energy. JUS BOOGIE fervently believes that today's youth are faced with many challenges of images on the television to the music in the streets and from peer pressure in school. Choices are made without any thoughts of the consequences. He realizes it's the content of the lyrics and images that are influencing the youth. With new flavor and a new spin, JUS BOOGIE's focus is not to be an alternative, but a first choice. He thrives to inject life and righteousness and to set a Godly standard through his lyrics and music that is relative to the listener's heart. When asked about his music and his mission JUS BOOGIE offered the following, "I love hip hop and I serve God so combining the two is natural for me. Young people face a lot of very real challenges and temptations from drugs and violence to the negative images they are bombarded with on TV and in music. I want to be the kind of artist that a kid who loves hip hop can turn to for a positive message while being true to the game. I am not interested in being known as the gospel Jay-Z or some "quaint" alternative. I plan to be the 'first choice' of a rap fan. I'm a real hip hop artist whose message just happens to be a positive Christian one." JUS BOOGIE (a.k.a. James Taylor Jr.) is an active member of Calvary Revival Church, Norfolk, Va. lead by Bishop B. Courtney McBath. JUS BOOGIE has opened for artists such as critically acclaimed PAJAM artist/ writer/ producer J MOSS (Destiny's Child, RAMIYAH, Trin-i-tee 5:7, Boyz II Men, and Kelly Price), Holy Hip Hop legends CROSS MOVEMENT.
