Inspirational music that will lift your spirit through a praise, worship, lullaby, and youthful (rock) feel. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Kenyon Dudley, a native of Atlanta, GA, has his first Contemporary Christian-Praise Worship CD ready for the world to hear and be changed by the messages in each song, as they go from praise to worship, from encouraging decrees and declarations to up-lifting chants! He believes that he has been set on this earth to totally and completely change the lives of men, with the gospel, in every way possible. He has not been called just to do the work that his forefathers have done, but he has been called to go way beyond what they've done and to set a path for the next generations to come! He is put on this earth to become all things to all men that he might reach them on their levels! This first project simply titled, Kenyon Dudley, surely exemplifies that last statement. Kenyon, not only believes, but knows that if it had not been for trials, tribulations, obstacles, and set-backs in his life then he would not be who God has made him to be, today! Because of life, he has been shaped and molded into an awesome 17 year old young man of God who, not only declares the victory of Jesus Christ, but lives in it! His new project, Kenyon Dudley, begins with Welcome Holy Spirit, which beckons the Holy Spirit to come into our lives and rest in our hearts as we endow God with our praises each and every day of our lives. I Can Make It, the fourth song on the album, just sums the entire CD up! In this inspirational declaration you will come to realize that you can make it through anything! Kenyon wrote this song through the eyes of David, in the bible! Although David was king and very influential he still had problems and he still fell short of the glory. Yet and still he continued to encourage himself in the Lord. He never gave up on God or his calling. He had an I Can Make It attitude! Kenyon began singing in the church at the age of 2. He recognized the passion and calling on his life for singing while he began preaching at age 5, and even more as he began leading the praise worship team at 13 years old. He is currently the youth pastor at his church, The Way Christian Tabernacle, under the leadership of Apostle Valerie A. Davis. He has shared the stage with Lisa McGlown Friends, Charles Taylor, K Bizzy (Bizzy Boy), and Irocc. He has opened for numerous concert and music showcase events, one which has aired on Comcast Cable Television channel 25, and for an Easter play that premiered at the Rialto in Atlanta, GA. He has even performed the national anthem and orchestrated gospel concerts at high schools such as Miller Grove High School. He has been all around the south promoting his new gospel project and its future release which have taken people, young and old, by storm! This new CD titled, Kenyon Dudley, is a mere picture of how God can take someone young, whom others have rejected and taken advantage of, and use them and bless them beyond measure. This CD is nothing but a resemblance of Kenyon Dudley. He is a prime example of giving God praise and worship no matter where he is in life or what hes doing. He loves the presence of God because in His presence there are encouraging words like those in the song, I Can Make It. This CD is a blessing to the nations. Let it bless you as you listen to each song, as you go from praise to worship, to encouragement, to Christian lullabies, to Christian chants that will lift your soul higher than you could ever imagine! Let the new CD, Kenyon Dudley', lift you today!
