Call her what you may...Counselor, Minister, Teacher, Missionary, Director, Writer or Actor; Evangelist Kim M. Graham's ministry is the same - To usher individuals into wholeness by facilitating greater knowledge of self and the divine. Jesus told Peter, "When thou art converted strengthen thy brethren." She finds direction and purpose in this statement. "Transformation" provides a unique vehicle to accomplish this goal. The inception of this project came about as several individuals determined in their hearts to take the Spoken Word Vibe to another level in God. Kim Graham has been writing almost since she was born. She has recognized for many years the power of words and music to provoke change in the lives of those who dare participate. Transformation takes the kernels of truth spoken in the Bible and transforms them into the poetic structure of our day. We are in need of a fresh move to reach the lost and dying souls of our generation. So many are asking like Ezekiel did, "Can these Bones live." Kim reminds us just as God told Ezekiel; they can and will if we will "Speak to the wind." Kim Graham has had the opportunity to minister in diverse places in diverse ways.
