Some are songs most requested by audiences through the years, some are simply close to our hearts. Before they met, Lisa and George both traveled the country as solo singer/songwriters. George also toured with his original rock bands (Evening Stage, Hooligan and Boardinghouse Reach). George's solo 1993 CD release Painted Dragon (graced by Lisa's harmonies) received critical acclaim and radio airplay in California, the Northwest and East coasts. Lisa is also nationally known as a children's/family singer and songwriter. She has four award winning recordings on the independent label A Gentle Wind (gentlewind.com) and performs regularly in schools, libraries and festivals. You can also hear her radio program, "Don't Panic It's Just Us Folks" on KKUP FM, 91.5 (Cupertino, CA), totally listener supported radio on Tuesday's from 10am to 1pm. "Don't Panic" has been on the airwaves for 11 years and features national and local singer/songwriters, peace activists and political commentary. Together, they have shared the stage with Pete Seeger, John Stewart, Leon Rosselson, Tom Rush, Alex DeGrassi and many others I put "Simple As That" on yesterday, and have now listened to it a dozen times. George and Lisa have wrought a small miracle. "Simple As That" takes us to a quiet and deep and good place where we are in touch with what matters. Thank you for this gift. Bill Moyers author and journalist Beautiful in its directness, achingly honest, sung and played with obvious passion yet understated..."Simple As That" is exactly what it's title implies - a "back to basic" paean to the warmth, honesty and simplicity that once defined "the American way" Mark Karan lead guitarist and vocalist with Rat Dog and The Other Ones "Simple As That" has clarity and freshness that goes deep to the heart. This folk music journey has all the best elements of the genre. These songs have a lasting impact. Mike Meyer Music Director KRVM, Eugene OR
