Previously best known for their contributions to soundtracks such as The L-Word, "Godivas", "Perfect Strangers" and "Blood Ties" as well as imaginative cover versions, LOLA DUTRONIC IN BERLIN is the first album to feature material exclusively written by the band as well as incorporating a new "Euro Pop" direction into their already familiar mix of French Pop, Lounge and Electronica. It features the French Disco single "MY RADIO", which is currently getting airplay in over a dozen countries, as well as the forthcoming single "ALL OVER THE WORLD". After releasing 2 albums with Vancouver-based Indie label, Bongo Beat Records, the band have decided to eliminate record companies all together and release the album on their own LDP imprint. For more information go to the band's website: myspace.com/loladutronic Heres what some reviewers have had to say about LOLA DUTRONIC IN BERLIN: An elegant piece of music....as stylish as the vintage material to which it pays homage - John Sakamoto The Anti-Hit List There are definitely moments where Lola Dutronic seem to channel a softer side of Goldfrapp.....tracks such as Chanson Dete and My Radio removes them from the well worn path of French Lounge and allows the group to move beyond their contemporaries. - layabozi. com A dreamy, super-husky voice.....seductive, danceable music -Guuzbourg - Fillies Sourires NOW IS THE TIME FOR LOLA DUTRONIC!
