"An incredible pop-rock album." - Connection Magazine 12 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Progressive Rock Details: Since he began singing publicly at age five in church Noah has never stopped, recording a three song demo at age nine and a full Christian album at twelve, and was honored to sing for the Winter Jam Tour before his thirteenth birthday. The following year he was privileged to tour with the Continental Singers, performing 36 concerts in 32 days across the west coast. He has since shared the stage with such accomplished artists such as New Song, Joy Williams, Bebo Norman, Tait, Rachael Lampa, Nicole Mullin, and others. But things havent come easy for this unique fourteen year old. Noah wasn't your typical kid in school and struggled with acceptance from his classmates. Never really fitting in with other children growing up in rural Oklahoma, it seemed he was constantly getting teased for his interest in the arts and his disinterest in sports, made it hard on his self-esteem. Recognizing his creativity as a gift, his parents nurtured his talent with encouragement and involved him in American Kids. Change has come over the years for Noah, he has grown up and is learning to heal from past hurt and use that pain to help others. He has seen this along with many other changes, not to mention plenty of peer acceptance! Recently he finished up his debut pop/rock with a touch of R&B Self-titled album, produced by Dennis Dearing. Noah enjoyed song writing along side Dove Award nominee, Leonard Alstrom whose has penned eighteen #1 songs, including "Christmas Shoes", Kevin Srokes (Avalon), and had the opportunity of working with some of Nashvilles best musicians, playing for the likes of Casting Crowns, Mercy Me, Steven Curtis Chapman, Amy Grant to name a few. Nationally promoting his new album with his familys ministry, *Legacy of Faith, are in the plans. Noah enjoys playing the keyboard and is eager to learn to play the guitar. Homeschooling allows him to minister year round, along with his parents, Brian and Jodi Barlass, and his younger brother and sister, Nathan and Nicole. *Legacy of Faith

Ministry was founded in 2003 as a mission to share Jesus Christ through out the world while being advocates for the family.
