From the title cut, Believe It!, to the cookin duet on A Day In The Life Of A Fool, this album offers a wonderful sampling of contemporary jazz featuring piano and guitar. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, LATIN: Latin Jazz Details: From the opening cut, Simple Gifts, to the toe tapping Zip-pa-dee-doo-da, Believe It! offers a playful approach to jazz. The material is reminiscent of west coast artists like Lee Ritenour and Joe Sample, with a few standards like Alone Together and Black Orpheus included for listeners who appreciate classic jazz. The arrangements are fresh and the playing is spontaneous. James Reaney (London Free Press) said, Heywood and Noubarian are at their smooth jazz best. John Sharpe (Scene Magazine) called it, an impressive effort, Four stars! Although primarily an instrumental album, Believe It! offers a sampling of three original vocal tunes. The title cut, Believe It!, written by Heywood, has an upbeat Latin flavour featuring guest vocalist, Jessie Ross, a singer with an intimate sound and a velvet voice. Noubarian peers from behind the keyboard to lend his Chet Baker style voice to Falling, and Toronto vocalist, Alphonso Burke, makes a guest appearance on Heywoods soulful ballad, I Give To You. Noubarian and Heywood have a long musical friendship and they play off each other with a savy intuition. Believe It! is fun with surprising moments. It's light without being trite, and serious without being heavy.
