Details: From Albuquerque, NM USA Oh, Ranger! is exactly what popular music needs today -- good musicians who write fun and catchy songs and aren't afraid to make everything they do an event. Their current extravaganza is an 8 song disc, "bitter yearnings on a lonely farm." that will make you wonder why rock-n-roll is not always this fun, or this good From the fun and catchy opener "Chewbaca," (Chewbaca you smell so good) through the seductiveness of "Mrs. Satan" (tell me Mrs. Satan do you love me?) and the empty threats in Red Headband, (i'm going to steal your red headband and drive away) Oh, Ranger! drag us through love inspired mud puddles where infatuation is the cliff from which we all jump into shaky relationships with questionable people who have those "legs, eyes, spiked hair" that make us want to go on Judy Brown and declare our not so secret desires.
