Details: Peaceful Schools partners with communities to engage youth in positive productive social emotional growth through the teaching of the Peaceful People program. During our years working with students and teaching Peaceful People we developed a series of songs. These songs are performed on STAND TALL by some of our Staff and Students. We hope you enjoy them. Peaceful People is a classroom based character education program that seeks to promote social emotional learning and foster positive community relationships. Students are actively engaged in skills training activities that promote the development of social competence. Five core social skills serve as the foundation of the Peaceful People curriculum. These essential social skills include: Cooperation, Assertion, Responsibility, Empathy and Self-Control (C.A.R.E.S skills).
