One only has to listen to Soccorro sing and you feel as if you have no choice but to believe each and every word. A Georgia native, Soccorro's foray into music seemed predestined even at the early age of four. Born to equally talented parents; her mother was a dancer and her father a rhythm and blues singer, it's no wonder Soccorro developed a love for the stage. By age 13, she had already helped establish a 3 girl singing group, including herself for which she wrote and arranged songs. In college her musical experience continued to escalate and by the time she graduated, Soccorro had performed jazz in New York City, African call-and-response in Spain and sang background for the Phat Cat Players. As if those accomplishments weren't enough, she's shared the stage with iconic performers such as Kelly Price, Keith Sweat, K-Ci and Jo Jo, S.O.S Band and George Clinton just to name a few. Though she is overtly modest when it comes to speaking about herself, I'm here to tell you that you should check out Soccorro's musical expressions. I have no doubt that you will leave as a fan. It's all love. Tre'Cera - CEO of IJABAMEDIA ENTERTAINMENT
