Acid Folk from the Left 9 MP3 Songs FOLK: Political, ROCK: Acoustic Details: "One Man's Ceiling" is a great CD with passion and intense feelings. Sue also created the Jacket art and it's one of the coolest CD jacket's I've seen. Don't let this CD pass you by! -ISCH She calls it original acid [rain?] folk. Reminds me of a female Bob Dylan for the new millennium. Sue's music is new to my ears, but I kept noticing new things with each listen. A worker-singer-songwriter, her voice sounds like a lower key, early Dylan, while her tasty instrumentations have a trance like hook after awhile. This eco-folk music is about the city. Sue sings laments for Greenpeace canvassers, the ills of malls and dumps, and evokes the healing powers of nature, which are especially important for the stranded city dweller. -Earth First Media
