Triforce Omega is a covert special elite forces unit comprised of only astronauts, ninjas and top scientists, who by chance can also rap and spin records so well that it would make the worlds smartest mans brain explode. D-REC-- A stockbroker by day, a cold blooded killer by night...D-REC, or the Death Fist as authorities prefer to call him, is a hired hitman trained in the ancient art of ninja death punch. It is rumoured that he was raised in the mouth of a volcano by a pack of wolves, Chuck Norris, John Mclain from Die Hard, Splinter and this asian guy who is moderately good at checkers. D-Rec was ordered to join Triforce Omega by super heros after he invented THE FUTURE! POPSICLE PETE-- After touring with the California Raisons in 87, Pete invented "Mind Bullets" and other cliches. Many refer to him as the next best thing to shooting a fire arm well intoxicated. Most critics agree that Pop Pete is the Winnie the Pooh of rap music because he's scooping all the honeys, as well as not being able to fit in small doors. Allegedly, in a freak ghost riding the whip accident, Pete became a top scientist and invented what we call "The Red Robinson Experiment". Red Robinson is a smooth pimp! Pop Pete is only in Triforce Omega because he knows Red Robinson. THE 952-- 952 is a group of thee numbers, or one number that is just shy of 1000. 1000 is a large number and cannot be trusted. 952 was arrested in 1995 for being ONE OF THE BEST RAPPERS EVER in Burnaby. When I first met 952 he was working in a prison camp on Rigal 7. When the Bosnian government found out that he was an asshole they suggested he join Triforce Omega. 952 is an asshole.
