Paige Holbrook needs help to bring her son out of a coma. In total desperation, she turns to Bidwell Bear, young Jamie's TV idol. From their first meeting, Paige and Hunter Blackwell, the man inside the Bidwell costume, each experience an attraction neither can ignore. He's kind and caring. His melodious voice sends shivers up her spine, trips her heart into overdrive and curls her toes. She's strong in the face of trouble and devoted to those she loves. Hunter is about to realize his life-long dream-to be a singing star. Paige swore she would never again love any man in public life. Glitz and glamour aren't her thing, not after what she's been through with her playboy ex-husband. Can Hunter convince Paige his love worth the glare of the spotlight?
