Simple, lovely melodies are what make Carol's music so appealing to both children and their families; you'll find yourself singing along in no time. 19 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, WORLD: Judaica Details: Carol's music is so singable and so usable that it has worked its way into homes, schools, and worship services. Indeed, the simple and very beautiful "Shalom Rav" on this recording is the congregational melody sung at worship services at many synagogues. On SONGS FROM THE HEART: FAMILY SHABBAT, Carol is backed up by a youth choir as well as a couple of other vocalists, guitar, piano, Klezmer clarinet, violin, flute, saxophone, harp, keyboard, and percussion accompaniment. Your family is bound to enjoy and sing along to these songs, some with catchy rhythms and others which are quite beautiful. This is also a wonderful resource for cantors, songleaders, and music teachers who are looking for new melodies to introduce to their congregations and schools. Carol is Washington, D.C.-based Jewish songwriter, songleader and music educator at preschool, day school and religious school. She is a prolific writer of Jewish music who has produced 2 CDs and 3 songbooks. Carol has available a companion 48-page songbook (melody line, lyrics, chords, and songsheets) for SONGS FROM THE HEART: FAMILY SHABBAT. It is available on her website at carolboydleon.com as well as from SoundsWrite Productions. Also available is her JEWISH LIFE CYCLE songbook and the very popular GAN SHIRIM, A Garden of Songs double-CD and songbook, as well as Carol's choral music. Carol would like to come to your school or congregation to teach you her music. Please contact her!
