"David Levin's words and music are the songs that you would write if you could. He is one of the most talented singer songwriters I have ever heard!" - Dan Jensen, Director of Marketing, Communications

PR - Public Radio International

Funny, quick to laugh, personable, a natural entertainer, David has an energy that glows like a hundred candles. But his music and voice are what shine the brightest. "God has blessed David Levin, and I as a fan am blessed to experience something as American and beautiful as the music he creates." - David Eiland.

Sax, Guitar, Percussion - Jonny Lang

Back in Minnesota after three years living on the Zuni Indian reservation in New Mexico, David returns to his rock/pop roots with a new band and CD, Stepping On My Hat. The disc gives a nod to the energy of the early Police but establishes David as an artist with a contemporary sound all his own. His previous CD, ZUNI, is a spare, acoustic production that puts the focus on his songs and voice, and reflects the simplicity and spirit of his time in Zuni. His first release, Heaven, was released in 1997 featuring many accomplished twin-cities musicians, including David Barry - guitar (Janet Jackson, Cher, K.D. Lang, Branford Marsallis); Paul Peterson - bass (Prince, the Family, Steve Miller, George Benson, many others); and Rick Barron - co-writer and background vocals. (Jonny Lang, LeeAnn Rimes, Jonathan Caine - from Journey - and too many others to list)
