Later on while Joe was playing in a band doing his original music.They were offered an Artist Development deal in Nashville. Joe has always had a love for writing songs.He reached one of his goals early on by having songs he had written played on both rock and country stations.And later on having songs published in Nashville.But although often talked about.The band or him never put out a CD.Just a few recordings along the way. So this long awaited CD has a collection of songs that shows the love and influence Joe has for many styles of music.Being surrounded with Rock,Country,and Gospel music.This CD can be enjoyed by people of many styles and ages. In this fast paced world we are living in today.People need to get back to taking that time to stop,relax and listen to what the music has to say.This CD is a good place to do just that.
