

Mp3 Judge-not - Soo Sweet

DOWNLOAD HERE

A group of three young talented R&B Liberian artists who grew up together. 11 MP3 Songs WORLD: African- West, URBAN/R&B: Traditional R&B Show all album songs: Soo Sweet Songs Details: Judge-Not is a group of three, Cornelius Y. Wright, (Bennie Ox), Paul Nah(Paul Square),and Benedict W. Clarke (Slaker). Judge-Not was founded on March 15, 2004. And on June 24, 2005 they released their debut song "LIB Grow". In the first week in August, it took the second place on Sky FM 107's show "Top 10" ,and first place on Unmil Radio "Top 20". In December Judge-Not was awarded Best Talented Artists of the Year Award, by an organization called "Yell". Judge-Not also called "the Kings of Afro Hip-Co" in Liberia signed it's first recording deal with KY Records in August of 2007. They will be releasing their debut album title "SOO SWEET" produced by the KY Records in LIB. Bennie Ox was born 1983 at the Bong Mines Hospital in Liberia.His father James Wright is from Nimba County and his mother Elaine Simpson is from Grand Bassa. Bennie Ox is a graduate of the St. Philips High School. Bennie attended the Computer Comperhensive Institute and graduated with a Cerificate in Software. Currently he is a attending the Stella Maris Polytecnic majoring in Civic Engineering. Bennie started composing and singing at the age of 15 with the church male chorus,and later he joined Paul Square and Slaker. Paul Neh, aka Paul Square was born 1983 in Yekepa Nimba county. Paul's parents Paul Neh and Beatrice Tweh are from Maryland County. Paul graduated from the James Doe Young High School in 2004, and he is now majoring in agriculture at the University of Liberia. Benedict W. Clarke aka Slaker was born in 1983 in Yekepa Nimba County.He graduated from the Assembly of God High School in 2004, and he is now attending AME University majoring in Managenment.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)