Drivin' and fun fiddle and country music with a little Americana and jazz 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Countryopolitan, COUNTRY: Old-Timey Details: Little House Larry Rice Many kinds of music speak to Larry, and theres a room for each in Little House. Up-front is the country room with an up-tempo beat and humorous or reflective lyrics. Its back to his fiddling roots in the kitchen with three traditional instrumentals. Pop is given a room, too, and its jazzy back in the bedroom. One song, Love Time, is his answer to the challenge from Larrys long-time friend and harmonica man, Bob Lambert, to write a song that could be played on smooth jazz (think Barry White meets Stefan Grapelli). Out back in the garden is where you can find Larrys favorite gospel hymn. Featuring Washington DC music legends Larry Tapper, Andrew Acosta, Barb Atherton and George R. Hickey Jr., as well as Texas pedal steel and blues guitar legend LB Roath, the energy and attitude is pouring out of the Little House! Larry Rices love of entertaining has taken him to some unusual places. From playing rock and Motown for soldiers when he was 12, to playing fiddle on the street or playing violin as part of a singing telegram or gorilla-gram act, sharing his love of music has filled his life. As part of the legendary Ohio country-rock act, Flatbush, Larry has appeared on-stage with the New Riders of the Purple Sage, Richie Metlock of Blackfoot and the Outlaws, and Little Feat. Flatbush was a touring/recording act for seven years in the late 70s/early 80s, and still reunites annually in Ohio. Larrys current projects include teaching fiddle and guitar, playing country with his brother Steve in the Rice Brothers Band, and eclectic pop with his daughters Lea and Shannon in Big Cheese.
