Details: Lex Dizik, possibly.... the most diabolical group of musical masterminds the world has ever known...???, have created some serious shock waves throughout the Philadelphia and surrounding area with their groundbreaking sound and intense live presentations. The uniquely space-aged and powerful sound of the band has been spreading like a cosmic storm throughout the US over the past year and is destined to soon to be electrifying the entire universe....with their debut 10 track CD release "02:4".

Fusing Rock and Metal influences orchestrated with pounding Trance and House type sequence undertones, spaced out / fluid to insanely heavilly distorted synthesized guitar ensembles, heart thumping bottom-end bass / drum polyrythms with hauntingly melodic, dynamic and memorable vocal lines..., their distinctive sound has gained them the attention of the area's top professionals as well as countless dedicated Dizik fans. Since the unofficial release of the debut EP entitled "Lex Dizik" in the summer of 2003, the band hurled itself directly into the center of Philadelphia's core original music circuit, packing venues and hypnotizing audiences with their explosive live show while distributing thousands of CD's to many partially disturbed fans of all ages and genres. The April 2004 edition of "Acrimony" Magazine declared the band "LEX DIZIK - The future of Gothic Rock" (article title), "some of the most futuristic music on the planet", "A space-aged symphony"... Tom Scott - Acrimony Lex Dizik has since been recieving regular internet radio play reaching the number one song spot on several popular internet radio shows. A radio "promotional assault" campaign is underway with the official fall 2004 release of "02:4" and a worldwide explosion of radio play for the singles "invasion" "darkside" and "run" is expected in the fall of 2004 In June 2004, Lex Dizik completed it's first full production music video for the track "Darkside" under the direction of David Allen Ruth, a Film Director and Producer based in the Philadelphia / New York region. David did an amazing job at capturing the dark feel of the song and the band with an unbelievable display of backdrop geometrics, complex lighting angles and a hazy fog creeping underneath of a huge bridge that crosses the Schuylkill River in Philadelphia, PA. the video has been turning heads and is set for it's official release in the fall of 2004.
