Her children's performance career began in Muskoka, ON, in 1993 when a good friend overheard her singing to her children at bedtime. Her career has since taken on two distinct identities. Mary has become known to thousands of children as "Peanut Butter" from the singing duo JAM SANDWICH. They produced their first cassette, full of traditional and well-known children's songs, entitled "Singin' Along" in May of 1997.
