-Lyrically rich bluesy, indie-folk, acoustic rock and alt-country with sultry, powerful female vocals. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Blues, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Known for her captivating vocals and dynamic sound, Mica Lee Williams's compositions catch the attention of even the most discerning music lover. Her debut solo independent release, Lucid Dreaming High, is a rich melding of lyrical prose, sharp musicianship and Mica's knack for vivid, intelligent storytelling. Often described as a "songbird", Mica's early introduction to the Beatles, Joni Mitchell, Phoebe Snow and Joan Armatrading are felt within her stylish mixture of classic-rock and modern folk; She combines thought provoking lyrics, mesmerizing vocals and haunting melodies which carry momentum that speaks to the human spirit. Performing on stage since the age of 16, as a solo artist and a member of several prominent bands, Mica Lee has garnered much critical acclaim for her work. In 1995 her band was the recipient of the Pepsi Boston Music Award and Boston Magazine's Best of Boston Award. Her vocals were featured on the Aaron Spelling series "Malibu Shores". Mica was selected to compete at the 2003 New York International Music Festival held at Madison Square Garden where she was a festival Winner. In January 2004 she won "Best Performance" in the West Coast Songwriter Open Mic Competition and in May 2004 her song A Life Profound was named Finalist in the VH1 Song of the Year Contest. In April 2005 she was selected to perform on Olivia Cruises Eastern Caribbean cruise with other top performers, including Grammy Award winning artist, Melissa Etheridge. Mica's craftsmanship has taken her from coffee houses and street performing to festival crowds of thousands, including the Vermont Music Festival, First Night on Boston Common, the Fringe Arts Festival in Edinburgh, Scotland and Komasket Festival in British Columbia. She consistently delivers passionate, high-energy performances in both acoustic and electric genres, and has toured the United States, Canada and Europe sharing her special blend of harmony and truth. Mica is featured on "Urbanthology: Live at the Cafe International", "Seattle's Best Pike Place Market Performers" and "City Sessions SF", a compilation of San Francisco Bay Area Singer/Songwriters. She has made several Bay area television appearances including KRON TV 4 comedy program "Stand up! It's Thursday Night!" and award winning Bay area prime-time cable program "The Bruce Latimer Show". Mica song "Daisyhead" was featured in the SnowFrog film production "Amuse" at the 2003 Brentwood Film Festival. Based out of San Francisco, Mica Lee performs extensively in and around the Northwest.
