

Mp3 Plaid Hatters - Plaid Tea Party

DOWNLOAD HERE

All girl rock with a punk edge; think The Runaways, The Donnas, Veruca Salt 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Grunge Details: Plaid Hatters is a four member, all girl band from Montgomery, Alabama. They combine elements of girl punk and rock to create a sound unique to the band. Their songs are written to express the thoughts and feelings experienced by young women. They reflect a range of emotions from love and admiration to anger and frustration. Their music is guitar driven with the bass and drums filling out the rhythm. The music is used to highlight the message being delivered in the context of the song. The lyrics and emotion contained within the song are the focal point of their songs. The band has been together for about two years. During this time their schedule and the interest in their music has continued to increase. They recently released their debut CD, "Plaid Tea Party". The CD was released and distributed by Skat Kat Records. Popular tracks are "Waiting For You", "Yeah, Whatever", "She Dreams", "Now You See Me", and "Alien Nation". The Montgomery Advertiser recently highlighted the band during promotion of the Jubilee CityFest Battle of the Bands. The band was chosen as one of six finalists in the rock category out of over one hundred bands competing. They were also one of ten finalists at The Metro Battle of the Bands.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: