BUY IT TODAY!!!  There's a saying, "It's all in a Name", and with the Man "Renaissanz", it has never been more true! Renaissanz is a hot up and coming R&B and Hip Hop artist and producer originally from West Philadelphia, currently bringing fire to the "Aeeeeee" (better known as Atlanta, Georgia). Renaissanz is a man of many talents, and it's because of pursuing all of those talents that Ren is only now launching out on his debut project, though he's had the gift of music for years. Ren is a Suma Cum Laude graduate of Florida A&M University (FAMU) where he played football as a wide receiver. A cat not ashamed of maximizing his combination of intelligence and athleticism, Renaissanz worked the corporate world as a Web Systems Engineer for years, while pursuing his goal to play in NFL. After several championship calipur seasons playing semi-pro football (Minnesota Maulers), as with many great athletes, the hopes to make it into "The League" did not pan out. But Big Ren has now taken the lessons of perseverance learned in that venture and has applied them to his lifelong passion and friend... music! Renaissanz appeared on the 2006 American Idol show, and got a split decision for the "Going to Hollywood" vote... Paula was a big "Yes", but Randy a "nah dude" , and Simon a "it's a no". But the great ones bounce back, and Renaissanz used the set back as fuel for layin' down his debut album, "Renaissanz Era" , available November 24th, 2006! Typical of a Renaissanz Man, "The Sanz" produced, wrote and performed each song on this debut project... and it's HOT!!! Starting his own record label, Ren Jam Records, was to be expected by this pioneer. He even designed his own myspace website! (myspace.com/renaissanz) Renaissanz, truly so in every sense of the word, is the next hot thing to come out of the "Aeeee" ... you heard it here first... pick up the album this NOW!  NOW AVAILABLE!!! BUY IT TODAY!!! *****
