Urban Gospel focused on God and not the artist... who has actually rapped with Jay-Z and The Notorious B.I.G. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap Details: Shawn Conrad (credited as Freshco) earned the title of World Champion Rapper in the 1989 New Music Seminar. Shawn once rapped and performed with Jay-Z, The Notorious B.I.G., Kid Rock, Ice Cube and many others of Rap's elite. But without the proper promotion and management, Shawn would never become a bling blinging star, and his rapping days were pretty much over. In spite of it all, God had bigger and better plans for Shawn. He went on to act in a TV commercial and do a short rap for a Coca-Cola radio commercial. Shortly after meeting his wife Ravella in 1998, Shawn gave his life to Christ and became a member of The Brooklyn Tabernacle Church. After a couple of years, Shawn and his family relocated to Westchester, NY where they are now members of Mount Olivet Baptist Church. Shawn is currently regarded as one of New York City's top Pro Tools sound engineers. He records actors, does sound effect design, music leveling and mixing for several animated TV series. Shawn's credits include sound work for The Matrix, Home Depot and the hit cartoon show Yu-Gi-Oh. In October 2003, God suddenly re-awoke Shawn's rapping abilities. This time, Shawn would use his skills not for the benefit of himself but for the benefit of building God's kingdom. In 2004, Shawn has performed at the World Famous Apollo Theater and won Best Hip-Hop Artist at the New York International Music Festival, where he was the only Gospel artist. He also performed at Madison Square Garden on the same show with Gospel greats such as Donnie McClurkin and Vickie Winans at the 2004 McDonald's Gospel Fest. Shawn seems to pick up from Kirk Franklin's and others' lead by giving listeners of Pop, R&B and Rap a musically credible alternative that simply reminds us about the goodness of God. His music feels like your favorite R&B/Hip-Hop tune, yet it doesn't drive away older adults with indecipherable slang. All ages will bounce to this! Gospel music can be sometimes thought of as "preachy" but Shawn's ministry shows his listeners how to glorify God without hitting them over the head with religious practices. He encourages us to NOT only seek God when there is an unfortunate terrorist threat but to have a daily relationship with Him. Shawn's music is jeep/street flavor with a message that youthful listeners and parents alike will appreciate. Find out more at ShawnConrad.com
