"Im bringing emceein back to hip hop, we are now in the years of the hustlers and bubble gum rappers. What happened to all the emcees?" Skramble explains his rap style as "I combine the what the fuck style with the don't give a fuck flow." In a genre of music known for being innovative Skramble should have no problems bringing a change to the music with songs that range from the normal club tunes to a more underground hip hop sound. "I can do it all, whatever type of track you need. There is no limit to what I can do, I also produce." After listening to a few of Skramble's songs I see that he is 100 right about being creative because each song takes you to a new realm of his styles, thus making an everlasting impression on the listener. I advise you to keep an eye open for Skramble who will make a drastic impact on hip hop shortly. CHECK MY NEW VIDEO: MY VIDEOS AND MUSIC
