Skewed Pop narratives from the basement of '79. 4 Chapel Hill scenester expatriates a guy from Durham...sounds like Velvet Underground with Nico, Sparks, Cheap Trick and Gary Numan in a good way... 7 MP3 Songs POP: New Wave, POP: Power Pop Details: The Breaks craft their pop missives in the tranquil burg of Pittsboro, NC; a stones throw from Chapel Hill, where the bulk of the band plied their trade throughout the 80s and 90s. The music leans heavily toward the New Wave and Power Pop sounds of the late 70s and early 80s, veering from the hook-laden crunch of Hott Stuff to the dreamy shimmer of Hotel Rockefeller. The immaculate assault of guitarist Steve Carr forms the primary layer of Breaks music, propelled by the nimble rhythms of bassist Traywick Batson and batterist Brunson Hoole. Keyboards player Tracy McInturff is the magic ingredient that fuses the elements into a sonic cream, wherein voxman John Ensslin romps for your delight. NEW YORK TO LONDON was crafted in the spring of 2005, and lovingly captured at Vista Point by Mike Nicholson. Enjoy NEW YORK TO LONDON with family and friends.
