Master story teller and musician Tim Yett, who is of Cherokee heritage, takes the listener on an inner journey into spirit through guided imagery and stories of the natural world. Creating Sacred Space came into being by sitting in meditation either alone or sharing in ceremony with members of many different tribes indigenous to the northern hemisphere. Each individual shared in their own way their understanding of the universal Truth. This CD is able to provide the seeker only a glimpse into the sacred circle and awe inspiring world of Native Culture. Tim is a contemporary spiritual teacher who is not aligned with any particular religion or tradition but emphasizes the powerful foundation practice of prayer and meditation as a means to connect with the universal Truth. He conveys his message with uncomplicated clarity that is delivered more clearly through the music than the words that are spoken. Tim said recently: Dont look at me, look beyond me. We are in a time of expanding consciousness. This is your time to look inward and find your own Truth.
