immigrant Adam Burrows is a singer/songwriter who plays modern folk and folk-rock music. Adams unique finger-picking guitar style provides a complex but relaxing background for his stories about love, loss, life and redemption. Adam performs regularly at various venues in and around Nashville. Adams debut EP, Never One For Silence, is a collection of seven gracefully unpolished tracks. Produced by Jon Young at Sonic Sculpture Studio in Nashville, earthy, acoustic-driven melodies are dressed up in slight but accentuating instrumentation by several notable Nashville musicians. Raw but elegantly produced, Never One For Silence is a must-listen for followers of artists in the vein of Ryan Adams, Paul Simon, John Prine, Patty Griffin and Cory Branan.
