Details: Bo San, an intense lyricist based in Cleveland, is well known for his hardcore delivery while providing a message in every verse. This extraordinary rapper helps bring back the origin of Hip-Hop by the use of his street smart edge and spiritual essence plus his hustla mentality to achieve the unachievable. Beginning in 1989, Bo San began performing in local talent shows such as Kings of the Iron Mic both as a solo artist and with various groups including Arkhum Asylum and Insidious. During these shows, he was recognized for his extraordinary ability to stir the crowd, which eventually opened a door for him in 1996. He was given the opportunity to perform in the 1996 Octoberfest at the Gund Arena, with the group Insidious, as an opening act. The show featured such artists as Ice Cube, Master P, MC Lyte, The Geto Boys, and 8-Ball MJG. From 1999 to 2003, while under the independent label Hustle Hard Records, Inc. Bo San released thirteen underground cd's, which included "Dis is my House," "Entertaining Angels," "Flood Deez Streetz," and "Look at me as I EVOLVE," to name a few. This has made him one of the most motivated and hardest working artist around the underground scene. Within this past year, he has opened up shows for OB Trice D-12 (Aftermath/Shady Records) and Trina (Slip n Slide Records). Also, he has been the featured act for Hustle Hard Records in the following three shows, Flood Deez Streetz Tour, Da Neva Give Up Tour, and Last of the Real. Currently, he is working on his fourteenth album "Fearless" which will be released in stores and available on the net beginning May 31, 2003. This is following his hit single "Take em off" featuring K. Blake. Bo San plans to continue to grow in the Hip-Hop garden of Cleveland and rap industry overall. He truly feels in his heart that he can bring back the "rawness" that the industry has been lacking for some time. When Bo San is asked for his opinion of some of the current music being released, the only response he has is "Weak Rhymes Only

Impress Weak Minds." For Booking Information: Hustle Hard Records, Inc. D. Mathis, CEO 4212 East
