The songs on this album were written by me over many years; Hopefully, my songs have aged better than I have! I recorded the vocals with acoustic guitar in Atlanta over ten years ago, then resumed and completed the project this past year, mainly in Austin, with the encouragement and assistance of my son, Craig. Here is a summary of the 14 tracks: ARROWS FROM A WARRIORS QUIVER, the title track derives from Psalm 127: Behold, Children are a Gift of the LORD, the Fruit of the Womb is a Reward. Like Arrows in the Hand of a Warrior, So are the Children of Ones Youth. How Blessed is the Man whose Quiver is full of them. BITTERSWEET ARE THE MEMORIES- describes the realities of long distance parenting after divorce. FROM THE SANDS OF IWO JIMA TO THE CLIFFS OF NORMANDY- written in honor of my late father, a WW II US Marine who served in the Pacific and his generation. I recently stood above the Cliffs of Normandy where so many sacrificed their young lives and played this song. Two of the photographs from that location are on the album cover. ELLIS ISLAND- my first visit moved me to write these words. As we are a nation of immigrants, everyone should visit. THE OLD MAN BY THE HARBOR - I saw him pushing a cart full of rags at the San Francisco wharf and the song sprang to life. GRAVY TRAIN- any man ever divorced will relate to Dont go Hookin your Caboose to my Gravy Train! MONTANA BROWN EYED GIRL skipped out on a meeting in Big Sky and spent the day at the Firehole River in Yellowstone Park with a Brown Eyed lady friend, who pointed out I had not done so well we blue or green eyed types. PRIMA DONNA semi-true story of a woman I dated; Man, can I pick em! LAY ME DOWN IN LONDON everyone should have one holiday romance! COLD WINDS OF DESPERATION - a very personal sharing of how depression feels. BAKIN A CAKE - Lord, help we men if Bakin a Cake for the Man I Hate/Wishin that it Could be Poison, ever catches on! SLEEPY TOWN - love and the morning after. HURRY UP SUN UP - a Im a ramblin man and Im leavin you song. THE NIGHT NIGHT SONG - is a lullaby for my children, with a new verse added as they each arrived over a 14 year period.
