Born in May 1976 to Clint and Desree Jordan, Clinton is the firstborn of 8 siblings. The Jordan Family is a musical family firmly established in the annals of UK Gospel Music history. With the Jordan Family that Clinton forged his path in music world singing, song writing, arranging, engineering and producing the Jordan Family album project. As well as being a highly regarded vocalist, talented keyboardist, drummer and bass guitarist, Clinton is in high demand for his production skills. He can often be found working away at his recording and production base St Annes Studios. Arrivals and Departures: Now embarking on his hotly anticipated solo career, Clinton is gearing up for the release of his long awaited debut album Arrivals and Departures. Recorded at St Annes Studios this album project is true labour of love for Clinton and all those associated with the project. In the album he explores the many trials and circumstances that Christians have to endure in a modern materialistic world. This eclectic mix of RnB, Rock, Soul, Jazz, Funk, Praise and Worship will cause the listener to experience a variety of emotions whilst taking you on the journey from repentance to rejoice. Clinton has a burning desire to see the transference of the power of music back into the hands of the church for the ultimate goal of seeing people being healed, restored and reconnect to God through the life saving message of the Gospel, The Ultimate Arrival and Departure: JESUS CHRIST.
