Falling somewhere between Sade, Goldfrapp and Bebel Gilberto, she creates a new fusion of cool pop and slow-burning soul spiced with latin rhythmns. A naturally gifted singer and songwriter, her first release, "Insomnia" garnered some great reviews and great opportunities. Her songs charted in the top ten in college radio. Her songs have been placed in award-winning indie films (The Pizza Guy, Conscience) and TV ("Missing", The Black Donellys, Friday Night Lights, One Life To Live) and she performed numerous times on national TV. She has just returned from overseas where she toured Greece, Turkey, Israel, Croatia, Italy, Austria, Ireland and England. Now on the eve of her second release, "Desire Rules The World" (5 Alarm Music, Fearless Records) Elle's impassioned, sultry voice has deepened in expression and she has added her flute playing as a compliment to her voice and guitar. Working with a team of Grammy-winning producers, Wayne Cook (David Foster, Danny Elfman, Clive Davis) and L. Stu Young (Prince), musicians Mike Shapiro (Black Eyed Peas, Macy Gray, Sergio Mendes), Mike Miller (Chick Corea, Bette Midler) and others, she is so happy about her album her warmth and excitement light up the whole room. "I believe in songs that take what we know and reveal the magic in it". ellelala.com
