A Blues based CD with enough energy and variety to appeal to all audiences from rock to country and listeners of all ages. It is hard to beleive that this young man is "ONLY 15" and all of the music is original. 14 MP3 Songs BLUES: Electric Blues, COUNTRY: Country Blues Details: Jamie Eubanks is an awsome 16 year old guitarist that plays and sings the blues with the heart and soul of a seasoned bluesman. His first influences were Stevie Ray Vaughn and Jimi Hendrix. As he became more interested in the blues, his influences started to turn more towards other greats like Albert King, BB King, Freddie King and Albert Collins. He has had the opprotunity to meet and sit in with some of the most talented musicians blues musicians in the industry. These veteran players have had a tremendous effect on him and there influences are definitely heard on his debut CD entitled, "Am I Too Young To Play The Blues". Some of his idols are Ronnie Baker Brooks, Kenny Neal, EG Kight, Debbie Davies, Michael Burks and Damon Fowler. After hearing his CD you will know Jamie is definitely NOT too young to play the blues and his writing and musicianship makes this CD one that will be enjoyed for many years to come. Along with an "All Star" band (Randy Eubanks/gtr, David Collins/bass, Taurus Lovely/drums and Darius Baker/keys) Jamie Eubanks is a must have to your CD collection.
