Contemporary Gospel Details: From Here to Eternity...inspiration and writing for this project began in 1999. Soft rock and pop ballads combined with catchy melodic hooks with good lyrics gives this artist behind the music, qualified earned merit as a songwriter and as a great recording artist. Mason Hockamier is a native of Phoenix, Arizona. Influenced by short essays and poetry from diverse selection of authors, he began writing while attending highschool in 1987. As a youth he was highly involved in several church choirs, musicals where dancing and acting were always combined. Eventually he found himself around the piano and soon came the lessons along with the born passion to write christian contemporary songs. He attributes much of his success in writing to his interest in poetry and listening to the radio everyday.
