Details: Naama Hillman Biography

Naama Hillman is a Singer/Songwriter based in London. She was born in Israel and grew up in America where her musicality was evident from the very early years, as she studied classical piano before discovering the guitar. Although influenced by artists such as Carole King, Neil Young, PJ Harvey, Zero 7 Sarah McLachlan, Naama's song writing is unique and very much her own. With "striking melodies and strong lyrical content" (Time Out, London), Naama is no stranger to live performance. She constantly wins over audiences throughout her gigs in London (The Borderline, 12 Bar Club), New York (Arlene's Grocery, CBGB's) and Tel Aviv (Camelot). After spending time in the studio with a small but significant group of collaborators; honing her skills as a songwriter and producer, Naama emerged with the finished product - "Living Room", a CD offering 11 original tracks.
