She has just launched the anticipated periodical, Inspire The Magazine, she has written and produced on the CD titled, As I Gave My Life recorded by recording artist Living Water, out of Washington D.C. Patrice is currently writing and recording, her first solo project produced by Tim Carmon, owner of PhunkyBoy Productions out of Los Angeles, CA. Patrice is well on her way to much more, but her prayer is I dont want any glory and you can have the fame, just give me the authority and power in your name father! Patrice will go on to produce and write for more up and coming artist while doing more solo projects. Stay tuned: God has much more in store for Patrice. Along with Living Water she has opened and sung back up for many well known artists, Donnie McClurkin, Karen Clark-Sheard, Marvin Winans, Shirley Caesar and recorded background vocals for Gladys Knight on her first gospel project. Living Waters also for the passed three years opened for political Conferences requested by Mrs. Eleanor Holmes-Norton appearing on C-SPAN. She has written and published her first Quote-book titled Family 101 and appearing on UPNs Making A Difference talk show hosted by Lisa Weer. Currently releasing her second book Let Tomorrow Come Breaking the cycle of bad Relationships to be released summer 2005. This one is for my youth, I have a hard passion for this generation that God has placed in me because he said he has called me to a rebellious generation, and I will do what ever he directs me to do to win them. Patrice has strong family ties being a grandchild out of a family of over 60 that all love and fear Christ. Patrice attends the National Bible College in Ft Washington, MD with a goal of obtaining her Doctors in Counseling. Patrice began to write songs at the age of nine and direct choirs at 15. Patrice has directed and lead her own youth choir called the Youth Unity Choir, and at the age of 18 started singing with the very anointed group Living Water that would guide, shape, and help her get to the next level of a her very promising solo career. Living Water the group she currently works and writes for, has sold over one thousand copies on the east coast alone and continues to branch out.
