sweet la - la, dirty honey - in a jar next to the shoo-fly pie 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Urban Folk, POP: Folkly Pop Show all album songs: Stolen Coal Songs Details: Hailing from the murky swamps of the South, a sweet voice with the best guitar this side of the Suwannee River is what you'll expect. What you won't expect is that these characters ain't from 'Bama. They emerge from that sprawling metropolis Miami, FL, a place known more for its dance clubs and neon than moonlit swooning and swaying. Raffa Jo on vocals and guitar makes you feel like you've fallen into a tender dream. Rainer Davies on various strings plucks out a groove so steady you'll be wanting to buy up some real estate in his neighborhood. These two have come together in their live performance to forge a sound not easily categorized, but if you'd like to venture there it would be something described as sweet la - la, gypsy folk, dirty honey - in a jar sittin' on a windowsill next to the shoo-fly pie. See....? Told you so.
