A sound canvas painted by the musical brush strokes of a curiously interesting musical wizard. An Internet graphical chat room brought to a wonderful musical life. 13 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: Ray Ratliff is known for his versatility and accomplished work on several keyboard instruments. On any given day you might find Ray teaching wonderful students (which he has done continuously for over 25 years), playing a pipe organ for a wedding, playing rock, country, or jazz music in a band or as a solo performer, directing the music program at a church, playing ragtime, new age, and anything imaginable, or at home working his poor, overworked computer to the max. Ray loves to compose and to "paint" musical pictures and this album is his first to really describe different scenes and friends from an internet cyber-world called The Palace, a fascinating environment that is popular worldwide among thousands of people. Ray's screen name is Rayrat, so if you see him in the cyber-universe, say hi! All the compositions on this recording are original and are performed and arranged by Ray Ratliff, a.k.a. Rayrat.
