Spyder has been recording sound since he was 9. He started with an old cassette player and cheap microphone. Born Brandon Thompson in El Paso, Tx 1983, Spyder has gone through hard times, including the loss of his real father, Bruce Thompson. At an early age, school plays and musicals were a way of showing people his love for music. By the age of 15, Hip Hop and Rap became a musical passion. Spyder points at the greats such as Eminem, Ludachris, Marilyn Manson, Rammstein, Linkin Park and Dr. Dre as his inspiration for his beats. Throughout his late teens he recorded demo tapes and made beats for fun and the ideas of a music career began. After selling his first album "Sh out of L.U.C.K" in school and at work there was no looking back. This has led to the creation of two more albums, "Dead Money" and "Web of Diamonds". Which were instant hits among his fans. All three are for sale at Spyderwize.com. Ready to take on the world with his skill, style, looks and elegance, Spyder believes it's not about "hope" but about passion and knowledge for the things you love. His comedy/evil style and sexy lyrics matched with west coast Hip Hop/ R&B beats makes "Web of Diamonds" an album on the rise to the top.
