This trippy/addictive natural, 19 year old ex-Ford Model TinaKristina uses her Bass alchemasty as a magic fairy stick, following pattern of Indian Svara. TinaKristina in her first solo album "Let It Go" travels thru R&B, Hip-Hop, Funky Pop-Rock, Expe 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, WORLD: World Fusion Details: "Let It Go" is the new album release of TinaKristina ZoomB. Described as "Amazing" by WBAI, NY 99.5FM - Saturday Night Show - this first solo release by the bass player of "The Black Mama Dharma Band" traces a smooth confident path from World music, through Hip-Hop, Psychedelic and Urban Groove. Empowered by the experience of touring in many countries at an early age, TinaKristina now arrives with this radio and dance friendly treat in a mysteriously cool and offhand manner. Totally professional, and a survivor in a music business world gone crazy - she has the charm, instinct and sensibility to become a major league artist. By, Sir Alex Gordon, Independent writer, London TinaKristina grew up in a family with generations of musicians and painting artists. She has been playing bass and performing for 11 years in NYC on stages such as the CBGB's, Bitter End, Lincoln Center, and the Odean, kicking all musical styles including Blues, Impro-Jazz, Rock, World, and Avant-Garde. She performed with her family band, and musicians like Jimmy Heath (Tenor Saxophonist for Miles Davis) and John Taylor (bassist for Duran Duran). TinaKristina was a leading role in Taylor's music video "Feelings Are Good". TinaKristina was also a Ford Model. She performed in various Radio TV shows, such as VH1, hosted by Joey Ramone...
