Light alternative pop with a british bluesy folk vibe. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, ROCK: 70's Rock
Details: Tommy Mack from Montreal- I like the sounds of the 70s mixed in with todays global Approach to music, creating a blend of influences from T-rex to The clash, Johnny Cash to Beck, trying to paint a sound you can almost touch as well as a visual audio experience writing words melody that cling to that sensory section of the brain and rhythm that will make you wanna get up and stomp. Tommy Mack who has been buzzing around the Music industries ears since the 1996 independent Spirit Pushers release on A-Rabian Records Cherry lane publishing and a Montreal Chom radio contest runner up with the band shifter also awarded a F.AC.T.O.R. Demo grant for his solo EP is now out with a new Cd titled Do you wanna ride on his own label BIG RAY Records. This new CD was recorded with the help of some local Musicians, Rob Mayor, Jonathan Cahier, Mishka stein, Lyle Robinson and Bryan Martin and Tean and has 12 songs. Mastered by Bryan Martin at Sonosphere. The songs are fun and twisted enough that break a few barriers and leave you with Sing along melodies.
