We can cite many examples of couples who think that life after divorce will be happier, easier and more eventful; however, they realize little late how wrong they were!!! The marriage is a union of two persons and if one goes wrong, other must be there to correct him or her. However, it has been seen that instead of utilizing the relationship and togetherness in a better way, they tend to blame the other person for the wrong and hence mess their lives. Divorce is not a solution to these problems as people find it the easiest way to walk away rather than dealing with problems. Also, marriage cannot work if only one person is compromising and stepping ahead for resolving the issues. Both the spouses must work toward saving their marriage and making their lives happier than ever before. In this ebook, we have tried to point out some areas of concerns and how to resolve the confrontations between the two of them. We hope that we will contribute a little in bringing about a change in your lives.
